THE PRESIDING OFFICER

MUCH INTEREST IN THAT FEATURE OF THE STATE CONVENTION.

Choose from-Committee to Meet April 18-Political Notes.

The question of who is to preside at the Republican state convention is arousing inerest all over Indiana. The fact that there is so much excellent material to select from appears to add interest to the matter. At this time the names of five different men are being discussed in different parts of the State. They are Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge, Governor Mount, Judge Taylor, of Fort Wayne, and J. Frank Hanly, of Lafayette. At Republican state headquarters yesterlay there were several visitors, and among hem were a number of county chairmen. The chief topic appeared to be the chairmanship of the convention.

Secretary Bigler returned to the city from Wabash yesterday and will probably be at his desk at headquarters until Chairman Hernly returns. The latter is expected back early next week. The state committee will meet on Wednesday, and it will be necessary for the chairman to be present then. At this meeting the final arrangements for the state convention will be made, but it is not expected that the committee on platform will make its report then. Another meeting of the committee will be held a day or two before the convention and the platform will probably be discussed at this meeting. At committee headquarters letters are community has stepped forward still being received from Republicans over the State who have suggestions to make two long strides. FIRST, he stood as to what certain planks of the platform should be. Most of those who have advice Rican tariff the advisers have little to say. Some of them discuss the financial quesgreat retailer whose mission it is to | tion and recommend that something be said the platform in approval of the action of Congress in passing a sound currency bill.

Mr. Bynum in the City.

Wm. D. Bynum arrived home from Washington yesterday and a member of his family said he expected to remain here several weeks. Mr. Bynum has been in Washington and New York in the interests of his appointment as a member of the board of United States general appraisers. The Senate having failed to ratify the appointment of Mr. Bynum, his friends have been greaty disappointed. Mr. Bynum was appointed is a Democrat, but on account of his attitude in the last presidential campaign on the money question Democrats have asserted that he is a Republican.

ACTOR IN THE WORKHOUSE.

Frank J. Arnold Is Punished by Judge Daly-Isaac Nier's Case.

Frank J. Arnold, an alleged actor, who was prosecuting witness in Police Court Monday, was on trial yesterday for unlawfully living with Mrs. Hester Merrill and was sent to the workhouse on a fine of $40 and costs and a sentence of forty days. The woman was found guilty and fined $5 and costs and given one day in the workhouse. The fine was paid and the day imprisonment remitted.

The trial of Fred Kettlehake, for the murder of Frederick Simon, was continued until to-day.

The case of the State against Isaac Nier, charged with arson and receiving stolen goods, took up the entire afternoon. Most of the testimony of the defense was by character witnesses, attacking the prosecuting witnesses, Jacob Gunther and Isaac Goldman. There was also introduced a witness in an effort to show that the statement of Gunther and Goldman about seeing Nier throwing lighted matches into the ice box in the basement was untrue in that they would be unable, on account of the construction of the building and the stairway, to have occupied the positions they claimed at that time. Nier took the stand about 5:30 p. m., and was subjected to a severe cross-examination, after having denied any knowledge of how the fire caught. Court was in session until after 7 p. m., when the case was continued until

A GOOD FIRST DAY.

The Sale for the Benefit of the Girls' Industrial School.

Another "rummage sale" opened yesterday at No. 40 South Meridian street. This sale is for the benefit of the Girls' Induscleared of rummage. The bargains offered by the "rummage sale" this week are numerous. The store is stocked with clothing of all kinds, as well as groceries, millinery and shoes, in fact, everything procurable in a department store. Mrs. C. L. Wayne and Mrs. W. H. Johnson are cashfers, and they expressed themselves as well pleased with the opening day. There are two 'phones at the store, old 'phone No. 2017 and new 'phone No. 3122, and persons haying rummage to send the ladies, if they will call either number, the managers will be glad to send for it. They have four wagons out collecting rummage, and each delivery yesterday was very successful. The sale will continue all week. The managers are much gratified over the first day's receipts, which amounted to $231. A policeman was present all day, and the crowds were so great that three times the doors had to be locked for a time, the room being full. More men's and children's clothing is needed, the sales being enormous in this line.

WINONA PUBLISHING COMPANY

Moves Its Plant from Bloomington, III., to Indianapolis.

The Winona Publishing Company, of Bloomington, Ill., is moving its plant this week to this city and will have offices in the Stevenson building. The publishing company has a close connection with the Assembly of Winona, Ind. The company publishes a monthly magazine, the Winonian, which is the official organ for the reading circles of the Assembly, which are patterned very largely after the Chautauqua reading circles. The reading circle course covers four years and there are four books taken up each year. The course is logically arranged.

The election of officers which recently occurred resulted as follows: President, Dr. W. P. Kane, of Wabash College; secretary and general manager, Sol C. Dickey, of Indianapolis; assistant manager, R. D. H. Reap; treasurer, R. O. Graham, of Bloomington, Ill.; chief editor, W. F. Millis, of Attica, Ind. Several people are employed by the company and the facilities will be enlarged to meet the increased demands. The management felt that Indianapolis was a much better location than Bloomington, Ill. Much work is being done on the Assembly grounds at Winona this spring. Several Cases of Scarlet Fever.

Nine cases of scarlet fever suddenly dereloped in the Board of Children's Guardians' Home, and the children are being isolated to prevent the contagion from the rubber it can supply. Several manuspreading. The nine cases are all in the poys' department, and there are no indiations that the disease has communicated to the girls. Two of the cases are in a serious form, but the other seven will be of little consequence. The well boys are convalescent. There are fifty-two children in the home, and the Sunday school and all gatherings have been suspended until the epidemic is wiped out.

Three hours later Mrs. Teller died. A double funeral will be held to-day and mother and daughter will be buried side by side at the Round Hill Cemetery, five miles south of the

The board of directors of the New Telephone Company held its annual meeting yesterday and re-elected S. P. Sheerin president, A. H. Nordyke treasurer, and Harry

A new plant is being built at Terre Haute, and by the time it is completed the company expects to have the line from Greenwhen it is finished the system in the northern part of the State will have been completed. The southern part of the State is already covered, and soon nearly all of the important towns in Indiana will be in touch with the capital by the New Com-

THE TALK WAS SPIRITED

REFERENCES MADE TO THE AL LEGED PLUMBERS' TRUST.

The Council Committee Gives a Hearing to Members of the Two Humbers' Organizations.

It was necessary for Chairman Evans, of the Council committee on public safety and comfort, to call members of the Master Plumbers' Association and the in dependent plumbers to order at meeting of the committee last night, for they insisted on arguing about the alleged plumbers' trust in this city and not confining themselves to a discussion of the plumbing ordinance now being considered by the committee, which provides for the appointment of a plumbing inspector.

The meeting was held to hear the master plumbers' expressions on the ordinance. After W. D. Freaney and H. T. Hudson expressed their views on the provisions of the ordinance Mr. Hudson made a sweeping statement that there had been an organization in Indianapolis among the master plumbers to exclude other plumbers from purchasing supplies to carry on their work. Mr. Hudson alleged that there was collusion of the journeymen plumbers and master plumbers which will be deterimental to the independent plumbers. said it would not be right to select a man for plumbing inspector from an illegal organization, and he had every reason to believe the independent plumbers would suffer in their business should such a thing occur. Mr. Hudson said he would like to see an ordinance which would provide that every master plumber must be a competent and practical man in the business.

Chairman Evans insisted that the men confine themselves to the ordinance and not air their personal grievances. Mr. Freaney arose and said he wanted to reply to the statement made by Mr. Hudson regarding the Master Plumbers' Association. He denied that the association was formed for the purpose of forcing out of business other plumbers.

During the discussion Mr. Freaney picked cut the objectionable features of the ordinance and explained them to the committee. He said the ordinance was obsolete and not up to date. He sald he helped to frame an ordinance similar to this one in 1883, and since that time the conditions in plumbing have changed materially. He was astonished at the Board of Health giving its unqualified approbation to such an ordinance. He said if the ordinance were to be adopted as it now stands it would mean an increase of 25 to 35 per cent. in the cost of plumbing and the people he Master Plumbers' Association was not Other members of the Master Plumbers' Association said the ordinance was now being considered by the association, and a

Mr. Hudson also said the provisions of the ordinance were obsolete and some things were in it that ought to be eliminated. He said the water supply was not given enough consideration, and it should freeze, so the people will be saved the expense of paying plumbers' bills during the winter because their water pipes freeze. He said the ordinance made no provision for sewer or drainage pipes. The power given to the plumbing inspector, he said, was autocratic and there should be restrictions placed upon him. The master plumbers advised the committee to go slowly in this work and not adopt a favorable report on an ordinance which would be detrimental to the city. The next meeting will probably be held some time next week.

TO SETTLE DIFFERENCES IN COL. A D. STREIGHT CIRCLE.

Court Proceedings Excluded-Some Lively Times.

A court-martial in the Colonel A. D. Straight Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., was held in Room 86 in the Baldwin block yesterday morning. The defendants in the court-martial were Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Oliver, Mrs. Stirwalt, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Annabill, who are charged with disrespect to their superior officers, disobeying orders, and some of them with charging a member of the order with stealing. The court-martial was the outgrowth of the case against John W. Oliver, charged with provoking Mrs. Alice Cramer, the department president, of Lafayette, which was tried before Justica Smock two weeks ago. The trial lasted several days, and the jury disagreed. The case will be tried again April 20.

all of the men. L. E. Reinhold, attorney for the plaintiff in the case before the justice, took the exclusion as a matter of course, but Justice Frank Hay, attorney for the defendants, objected to being ousted. He contended that he had a right to be present at the trial, and stayed until the officers of the circle said they would file an affidavit against him for disturbing a meeting of a regularly organized society if he did not withdraw. Finally he left them to themselves, and the defendants were arraigned before a jury, a judge advocate and the department commander. Two of the defendants, Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Lawrence, did not appear, and it is announced that Mrs. Lawrence has gone to California. A BOER SYMPATHIZER

Put to Rout Three Men Who Favored British Arms.

A Boer sympathizer used his fists in a telling manner last night, when he overheard an argument between three men who sympathized with the British in the fight in South Africa. HE WILL LOSE AN ARM AS THE RE-SULT OF AN ACCIDENT.

And His Injuries May Prove Fatal-Thrown Under the Wheels of a Street Car

William Morris, forty years old, living at Broad Ripple, received injuries on the Broad Ripple electric line yesterday that will likely cost him his right arm, and may prove fatal. He was standing on the front end of a flat car on the work train. When half way between the city and Broad Ripple, the motor car broke loose from the rest of the train. The motor car had gone considerable distance ahead of the train when some one gave the motorman signal to stop. The car was brought to a standstill in almost an instant, and the broken train crashed into it. Morris was thrown headforemost over the front of the car and under the wheels. The force of the collision sent the motor car forward and the man was dragged some distance before it could be stopped. The wheels of the flat car passed over Morris's right arm between the shoulder and elbow, crushing his arm and shoulder into a pulp. He was picked up and taken to Broad Ripple, but did not lose consciousness at any time. Dr. Light was called, and although the accident happened at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, he was unable to determine late
